OTHER VISITS TO MÁLAGA

Private groups only, by reservation

PICASSO AND MÁLAGA

We follow in the footsteps of the great artist, born here in our city from his birthplace to the museum dedicated to him. Learn a little more about his work and relationship with the city. Includes visits to the Picasso Museum and his birthplace.

ISLAMIC MALAQA

Muslims ruled in Malaga for eight centuries. As well as visiting the Alcazaba, fortified palace, and the Gibralfaro Castle you will discover other Arabic remnants preserved in various parts of the city and view the evidence left in its streets. Visit the Alcazaba and optionally Gibralfaro (transportation required).

ARCHAEOLOGICAL MÁLAGA

Archaeology is slowly uncovering the past of this, almost 3000 year old city, but many discoveries are relatively unknown. We will trace that legacy in the Malaga Museum, the Roman theater and other enclaves.

RELIGIOUS MÁLAGA

In addition to its magnificent Renaissance Cathedral, Malaga offers us many other churches in various styles, great treasures of sacred art and the famous Malaga Easter.

THE COLORFUL BAROQUE MÁLAGA

In recent years it has been revealed that the city of the 17th and 18th centuries presented a very different image, with wall decorations that enrich its buildings and reveal its secrets, from the Alameda to the surroundings of the church of San Felipe Neri, the old Barrio Alto.

NIGHT-TIME MÁLAGA

Everywhere is different when seen at night. A romantic journey through the charming and the humble corners of the city. We will talk about mysteries and crimes and visit the most traditional wineries.

MÁLAGA IN THE 19TH CENTURY

During the 19th century Malaga was one of the most important industrial and commercial centers in the country. We remember the splendor of the Malaga commercial bourgeoisie visiting spaces such as Calle Larios, the Teatro Cervantes, the Plaza de Toros, the Paseo de Reding or the English Cemetery.

DEATH IN MÁLAGA

Malaga from another perspective: that of its dead. Discover Phoenician, Muslims, Baroques or Romantics burial sites.

WOMEN IN THE HISTORY OF THE CITY

A journey through the footprint that women have left in the history of the city: nuns, princesses, workers, prostitutes, artists, writers or or illustrious visitors. Names like Victoria Kent, Isabel Oyarzábal or Empress Elizabeth of Austria-Hungary accompany us on the way.

Adaptable duration of activities. We can also prepare tailor made visits
